

Bullying is a BIG Problem!

A bully needs an audience to succeed. Don't help the bully. If you are witnessing an act of bullying, walk away. Get help if you can, but don't give the bully an audience. Watching adds to the hurting of the victim. You're not just an innocent bystander if you're watching. You're guilty, too. And be aware that if just one person says "Stop it" to the bully, about half the time the actions stop. Think about that the next time you see bullying.

Herald-Leader Activity:

Read the editorials to see how they are written. Write one about how bullying is handled in your school.

Books about Bullying:

Why Is Everybody Always Picking on Me:

A Guide to Handling Bullies by Terrence Webster-Doyle

Websites:

www.bullying.org

www.kidpower.org

Copyright 2007 Hot Topics Hot Serials

*According to the Bureau of Justice Statistics:
Recent surveys show that 77% of students say they had been bullied at some time.*

newspaper in education

Lexington Herald-Leader

*bringing educational excellence
into the digital age*

www.nieconnects.com